EUGENIO PALMA

DIGITAL CREATOR

From a very young age his passion for creativity prompted him to found his own art and graphics laboratory at the age of sixteen.

In that same year he exhibited 3D works in group exhibitions of Contemporary Art, establishing himself as the youngest digital artist in Italy.

After obtaining the scientific high school diploma, he works as a designer and creative in the best-known agencies in his area.

Over the years his skills and his collaborations grow internationally, establishing himself as a digital artist and video creator.

He exhibits his works in international contests and biennials of contemporary art, winning numerous prizes and awards.